

This audit is designed to review the practices of management toward employees. It is designed to audit all the practices of management and provide an analysis of these practices against fair labor codes and practices. This audit can be performed for any industry including the food industry.

Employers need to know if their suppliers and manufactures/processors are socially responsible.

Major items covered by this audit are:

Protection of Children

Health and Safety

Environmental Working Conditions

Facility and Facility Conditions

Equal Opportunity

Freedom of Association

Freedom of Employees

Remuneration

Wages

Working Hours

Homeworkers